Nell and Lylia Bewley, Linda

Dr. Majors and Dr.

Thompson, Lorena Cummings, Janie Gilreath, of Greenville, Willie Cann, Eula May Dillingham, Laurie Dowling, Nelle Hinely, Anna Warren Clark, Lucy Carpenter, Messrs. Billy

Rennifical Wedding Anniversary.

Ever since invitations were issue

Wreaths of autumn leaves and red a lovely grove some distance from the road. Mesdames Theodore Wat-gracious welcome at the entrance to the reception hall. Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Allen were their daughpresent. -From the reception room which was bright with red roses,

Japanese fans and soft lights from red shades the guests were shown into the parlor by Mrs. Thomas Eskew. This room was lovely in autumn teaves. Here was displayed quite a number of gifts, all-with a suggestion of the ruby. Mahogany chairs and trays being considered eligible for this occasion were among the presents. The dining room was a symphony in red. On the mahogany table, was a symphony in red.

table was an exquisite hand made tover, at the four corners were pots of crimson salvia, while in the center was a candle burning red candles ments were beautiful and elaborate, tyo courses being served. Mrs. J. M. Sullivan and Miss Mirriam Lee presided in this room, assisted by Miss Laura Glenn and Miss Annie bout one hundred relatives and friends called during the afternoon to extend their best wishes and con-gratulations to this bride and groom

The refresh-

was a candle burning with Japanese shades.

Belle Glenn.

This room was lovely in au-son and Earle Watson extended

We know a lot of people who always keep it in the house. That's why their homes are bright and cheer-ful. All their floors, furniture and woodwork look like new.

is a wonderful finish. It comes in all colors. Do over that floor and put a dutable Kyanize finish on it. Make that Furniture new again. ome in. We'll give you a can Preo you'll spend a dime for a brush to at it or with. Once you try it, you'll ways have it in your house.

ANDERSON PAINT COLOR CO.

To cook with is the most Mattison. convenient fuel to be had.

And it is the cheaper, too when the least bit of thought and attention is given it.

you will like it. There are many satisfied users of gas in Ander-

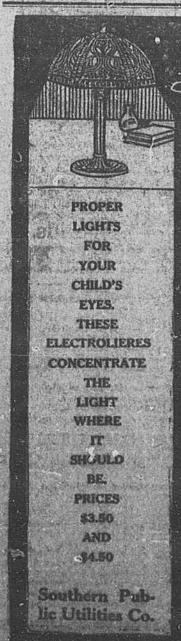

It's just the thing to heat the bath room with.

Anderson Gas Co

ATABIG

ATLANTA, GA.

FUNERAL SERVICES THIS EVENING AT

REMAINS MR. C. S. SULLIVAN BROUGHT FROM CO.

SON WILL ARRIVE

From Boston This Afternoon at 3 O'clock and Services at First Baptist Church.

The remains of Mr. Charles Sullivan were brought to Anderson from Columbia yesterday afternoon, arriving at 8 o'clock. They were accompanied by Dr. John E. White and Dr. James P. Kinard.

The funeral services will be held this ofference.

The fineral services will be less this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the First Baprist church, conducted by Dr. White, the pastor. Charles Sullivan, the son who is a student at Harvard, is expected in Anderson this afternoon

The active pallbearers will be the employees of the Sullivan Hardware company who are: J. L. Fast, H. O. Wallace, L. L. Hatcher, J. 1. Holland, L. A. Campbell and G. W.

The honorary pallbearers will be The honorary patibearers will be:
Dr. B. A. Henry, Dr. James P. Kinard, Messrs. R. S. Ligon, R. E.
Ligon, H. F. Watkins, P. E. Clinkscales, J. A. Brock, D. A. Ledbetter, J. R. Vahdaver, H. S. Shumate, W.
F. Cox, William Laughlin, J. L. Hemhees, G. H. Balles, E. D. Horton bree, G. H. Bailes, E. R. Horton, Rufus Fant, Jas. D. Hammet W. F. Cochran, W. A. Waston and M. M.

Anderson College All work will be s. spended at Anderson college today because of the funeral services of Mr. Sullivan.

LADIES FREE TONIGHT

Another Blg Night is Being Planned at the Anderson.

o when the least bit of thought at the Anderson.

Tonight and tonight only, the Norene St. Clair Stock company will offer one of the greatest, if not the greatest play of American life ever written, "The Deep Purple." This play by Paul American and Walson Mizner attained a success second to note.

As an inducement to the ladies to As an inducement to the ladies to come out and see this wonderful play Mr. Pollock and Mr. Trowbridge have decided to have ladies free again tonight. One lady will be admitted free under the usual conditions, one lady free with a paid thirty cent ticket. These tickets must be reserved before seven thirty. served before seven thirty.

The conditions have been so decidedly unfavorable this week that the management has decided to fill the house at small cost to the individual. The play will be rendered in its entirety and the curtain, on account of the length of the play will go up promptly at 8:30.

Do.'t miss this, the last opportunity of seeing a play of this calibre free. "The Deep Purple" will more than please all who see it.

A big chest of silver will also be ven away; a great show, fine special, a swell prize.

Watch for the Football "Specials" in Friday's paper. They will be well worth while. There will probably be a page of them.

Anderson Tonight, Ladies Free.

She-I suppose the duke has land-

He—Landed one every time has married, but he managed to run through em all.TBoston Transcript. rub

最知识的。

Invitations Recalled

The invitations issued by Mrs. H. H. Watkins for an entertainment in honor of Mrs. James P. Kinard for yesterday afternoon, were recalled on account of the death of Mr. C. S.

Musicale Postponed. The Musicale planned by the Rob ert E. Lee Chapter for Thursday af-ternoon has been postponed on ac-count of the death of Mr. Sullivan.

Miss Anna Ross Cunningiam has returned from a trip to the mountains:

Miss Lila Sherard of Iva is the guest of Mrs. J. E. Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Caughman arrived last night and are the guest of their daughter, Mrs. Walter Beaty. They came up to attend the Clemson-Auburn game on Saturday, their son, Mr. Kenneth Caughman baing a member of the Auburn team.

Mrs. Berkley is visiting Mrs. H. G.

Mrs. Claridge Norryce has returned from a visit to relatives in Charlotte and Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Weston Harper of Lowndes file has been visiting her daughter Mrs. Theron Allen and was here for Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Allen's "Ruby Wedding," on Tuesday afternoon.

Lovely Party For Miss Rudisill.

A charming little party was given on Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Horace McGee in honor of their pretty visitor, Miss Grace Rudisill, visitor, Miss Grace Rudisill, who a sister of Mrs McGee and has come to spend the winter with her. A novel and interesting form of amusement had been arranged for the amusement had been arranged for the guests seven tables being placed about in the attractive living rooms and at each one a different game was played, the players progressing as they won. Some of the games played were, "Up-Jinks," "Cid Madds," "Eet Back," Tiddle de Wiaks," "Rook," and many other merry general The and many other merry games. The prize, a box of candy was won by Miss Hinely. Later several musical selections were given by Miss Clarke, Miss Findley and Miss Rudisill who is quite an accomplished musician.

Delightful punch was served by Miss Laurie Dowling and Miss Eule May Dillingham, and later a dainty mennu was served by the attractive hostess assisted by Misses Lydia and

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. T E. Howar' Mr. and Mrs. Q. Frank Johnson, .r. and Mrs. Eugene Wat-kins, Misses Francis Finley, Miriam

MUSIC FROM LIGHT

Lee De Forest Declares He Finds Sur-passing Tores in Lamps.

A. G. PINCKNEY IS DEAD Premier Postmaster at Williamston and Was Well Known.

(New York Dispatch to Philadelphia Mr. A. G. Pinckney, a highly teemed citizen of Williamston, died in a hospital in Columbia Tuesday af-Public Ledger.)
Dr. Lee De Forest announced to-day that he had made electric lights ter a lingering illness. His body was shipped to Williamston, and the funeral was held Wednesday morning at play music far surpassing the best efforts of any orchestra. "The music of the lamps," he called it. Doctor Do Forest is one of the pioneers in the development of wireless telegraphy.

It is only a detail of the possibilities of Doctor Do Forest, invention that Mr. Pinckney, son of a prominent South Carolina family, was originally from Charleston. He was about 45 years old, and prominently identified in the social and business life of Wil-It is only a detail of the possibilities of Doctor De Fo est's invention that the master musician may sit in his gaid in free master musician may sit in his gaid in free master of the lamps in the ear of the Sphinx, recalling to it the tunes of the ages of long ago.

"Music from light—that in a word, is the latest magic of the lamp," said Doctor De Forest tonight. "We have at last reached the point of transmitting light rays directly into sound rays. In my laborate: there are a number of small superical incandescent bulbs from which I am able to obtain a succession of musical notes, clear sweet, of surpassing volume, the pitch an dtimber of which, can be liamston, having served that town as postmaster for a number of years, pre-ceding Postmaster Mahon. Until he was forced to retire on account of ill health, Mr. Pinckney was engaged in the real estate and insurance businecs. He is survived by his wife and which for the Football "Specials" in Eriday's paper. They will be well worth while. There will probably be a page of them.

Two Children Had Cream.

The two children of J. W. Nix merchant, Cloveland, Ga., had ernup last winter. One was a boy of a, the other a girl of 8 rears. Mr. Nix writes: "Both got so cheked up they could hardly breathe and couldn't talk. I gave them Foley's Honey and Tar and nothing else and it extirely cured them." This reliable medicine should be in every home for it gives immediate relief from colds, coughs and rough, balls are inflammed thread and loosens phiegm. Sold everywhere.

Personal

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Jackson, Miss Lois Jackson and Mr. T. C. Jackson, Jr., of Iva passed through the city yesterday on their way to Pendleton where they attended the cen tennial celebration.

Mr. Glenn Simpson of Starr was a business visitor yesterday.

Lyen, Fairis Hill, Clyde Smith, Paul Watelas, Lewis Cochrane, Ernest Johnson, Malvin Means, George Pant, Keys Chimer, Dr. Mack Sanders, Dr. Russell, commandant Mr. T. C. Staunton Military Academy has re-turned to his duties after a visit to this city because of the illness of his father, Mr. D. W. Bussell.

a fortnight ago, the fortunate recip-Messrs. Z. J. Spearman, T. W. Burriss and J. A. Scalister of Iva attended the celebration in Pendleton for the twelfth of October to arrive, when Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Allen of North Anderson were to calebrate the forticth anniversary of their marriage with a 'Haby Wedding." Even nature contributed to the color scheme with her tints of red. vesterday.

Mrs. F. F. Shirner, Mrs. Ida Cal-loun, Mrs. S. W. Evaus and Mr. W. I. Shirner of Clemson were visitors n the city yesterday. berries with the dates 1875-1915 met the eyes of the guests as they ap-proached the home which testles in

Mr. J. N. Nauce of Due West was business visitor yesterday.

Ashley Briggs of Greenville spent yesterday in the city.

Mr. Arthur Sallivan of Townville was among the visitors in the city vesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen were their daughter, Mrs. William B. Turner of Ellenton, their two sons, Mr. Ernest Allen of Lowndesville and Mr. Theron Allen of Anderson, and Mr. B. Bolin Allen from Lowndesville, a brother. Another daughter Mrs. Arthur Speer of Elrmingham, Ala., could not be be present. From the reception seems Mr. Clarence Clinkscales of Belton business visitor in Anderson yesterday.

Mr. Frank Pettigrew of Starr vent few hours in the city Wednesday.

Mr. L. S. West of Roberts was visitor yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie English of Beiton spent a few hours here yes

George H. Rover, J. T. Floyd, C. Trickwell of New York, C. A. Law of Philadelphia and Dr. Odom of Greenville were in the city yesterday calling on the jewelry trade.

"PEG" TOMORROW NIGHT

First Blg Show of the Season at the Anderson Theatre.

Morosco's production 'Peg O' My Heart," the comedy of youth which will be the attraction at the Anderson theatre for Friday night is said to be the most popular play offered in New York in years.

When Mr. Manners first wrote of forty autumns. Time has dealt gently with this wedded pair and the wish expressed by many was that they might live to celebrate their golden and even diamond wedding. 'Peg O' My Heart" he had some difficulty in finding a manager willing to produce it. Mr. Morosco, a wes terner, with an un-Manhattan outlook on life, discovered that the play was "different." that it was without discussion of the social evil, and the everiasting revamping of capital and labor, and likewise eliminated all reference to the several size for the ference to the sexual sin, from all of which material for plays had drawn to the great extent of late. Mr. Morosco saw in the play the re-lief for which theatregoers have long been waiting.

been warring.
"Peg" is a selfish little human being with a child's outlook on life and a child's naive ways. The story conchild's naive ways. The story con-cerns a little Irish girl brought up by her father in poverty and suddenly introduced into a famil yof aristocratic relatives in England. Her appear-ance shocks her high born relatives, and her unfamiliarity of ways of the aristocracy leads to many structure. aristocracy leads to many humorous situations.

The play is brimful of clever wit and humor, interwoven with a thread of love and affection. The producer has mounted the production in layer style, and supplied a cast of more then cent bubbs from which I am able to obtain a succession of musical notes, clear sweet, of surgasaring volume, the pitch an dimber of which, can be varied almost at will to finitate any musical tone of any orchestra. The infinate variety of tones and the consequent infinite combination of notes will enable utaiclans to feach a height of music perfection never attainable with any instrument now used.

Tickets are now selling fast at the

Anderson Tonight, Ladies Free.

"Walle working on my experiments in develoging the andion as a wireless telephone detector and, incidentally, as an amplifier wire, tings in made the discovery that when the circuits of the audion were connected in a certain way a clear musical note was breard in a tilephone receiver connected with one of these circuits. "In the little girl's father turned was beard in a tilephone receiver connected with one of these circuits in the students and other sounds planting that I could changes this quality of the tone was very bear little, and I found after a little experimenting that I could changes this quality of the tone was very bear little, and I found after a little experimenting that I could changes this quality of the tone was very bear little, and I found after a little experimenting that I could changes this quality of the tone was very bear little, and I found after a little experimenting that I could changes this quality of the tone was very bear little, and I found after a little experimenting that I could change the little girl's father turned the structure of sounds indicating vith one large, the little girl's father turned to arrabase and the structure of sounds indicating vith one large, the little girl's father turned to a was bear to a little experimenting that I could change this product of the work of the structure of the work of the weak of the structure of the work of the wor Watch for the Feethall "Specials" in Friday's paper. They will be well worth while. There will probably be a page of them.

Had it is lim.

Hybby-You've made a regular fool of me eyer since we've been married.

Witey-Oh, no, dear. I've merely developed it.

CITROLAX

Special Sale Sunshine Biscuits

For this week only we offer you the famous "Sunshine Bisegits" baked in the "Wonder Bakery of the World" at the following prices:

VARIETIES IN 10c PACKAGES-3 for 25c, 6 for 50c, 1 dozen

Chocolate Fingers Vanilla Wafers Dainty Marshmallows Fig Sai Bar Perfetto Sugar Wafers Multi Jr., Sugar Wafers Grahams Vereniques Sugar Wafers Tan San Sugar Wafers Clover Leaves Sugar Wafers

Cheese Wafers Cheese Sandwiches Cocoanut Dainties Lemon Wafers Zwieback Kriskp Crackers Suñolk Arrowroot Cream Lunch

VARIETIES IN 5c PACKAGES—6 for 25c, I dozen for 50c,

TAKHOMA BISCUITS Milk Lunch Lemon Snaps Yum Yum Ginger Snaps Old Hickory Ginger Snaps

Vanilla Wafers Circus Animals Grahams Oyster Crakerettes

Varieties offered in this weeks sale just received rect from the "Thousand Window Bakeries." direct from the "Thousand Absolute freshness guaranteed,

Sponge Lady Fingers

Musicale Biscult

269 Greenville

We are recommending our 10-1-0 and 10-2-0 and 10-2-1-0 for wheat and oats this fall when you sow it.

This will give it stalk and grains in the head, and that it what you want in grain. If you will sow five acres in wheat and five in oats this fall, after preparing the land well and fertilizing it well with either of these goods, you will find it advantageous. The 10-2-2-0 is an especially fine goods for grain. Let us hear from you.

Anderson Phosphate & Oil Co.

Anderson, South Carolina.

591 ACRES

in this county on a main road, in quarter of a mile of vailroad station, graded school, and churches, with about 30 acres in one level field,

FOR $35.00 PER ACRE FOR QUICK SALE

Has wood and water enough for that size

Anderson Real Estate & Investment Co. E. R. Horton, Pres, L. S. Horton, V. Pres. W. F. Marshall, Secy.

GREATLY REDUCED ROUND TRIP FARES

SOUTHERN RAILWAY In Connection With Blue Ridge

PENDLETON, S. C. Account of Farmers' Centennial, October 12-14th, 19.7.

The following round trip fares: